DEAR SIRs: We have decided to call our sale this month "The Compass Collection," for it contains, indeed, consignments from the four points of the compass, the duplicates and cullings of many a cabinet. We intended to offer this month a celebrated collection, with which all of you are more or less familiar, but it "bates Banniger," how when a man gets attached to his coins he hates to part with them, and our friend was no exception, for he has decided to feast his eyes over them a month or two more before we disperse them to the four corners of the globe. So we have selected a few of the smaller consignments that have been pouring into us since July, and herein offer them to you. Not much that is rare, but yet if you respond as well as you did to our September sale, the cataloguer will feel well repaid for his trouble. Particular attention is called to the consignment of a "tired dealer." He is, indeed, very tired, and wants a rest. So jump in and see that his remnants go at good prices. Appropos of nothing, look out for November 1, for in that day's mail you will have an interesting little matter called to your attention, and one which we think will meet thoroughly with your approval, until then, Selah.

Yours truly,

GEOFFREY CHARLTON ADAMS
